

Residential Scholarship Opportunities

Apply to live at the International Student House of Washington, DC today!

The International Student House of Washington, DC (I-House DC) offers several need-based scholarships to support our Residents with room and board credits. These scholarships reflect our core values of intercultural dialogue, global citizenship and lifelong connections, and help make the opportunity to live at the House available to all potential Residents

Residential scholarships are awarded in the amount of $5,000-$6,250 for the academic year (September 2024-May 2025). The total residential scholarship award amount is prorated on a monthly basis and is credited toward the recipient's monthly room and board fees

Both international and U.S. graduate students may apply to the Residential Scholarship Programs.

Eligibility

Eligibility requirements for residential scholarships vary, but all candidates must meet these criteria:

- Possess an unconditional offer of admission from or be enrolled in an academic institution in the Washington Metropolitan Area.
- Demonstrate financial need, academic promise, and the ability to contribute to the diversity of the House's resident population.
- Meet the specific program or fund eligibility criteria. They can be found in the descriptions on the Residential Scholarship funds and programs page.
- Must have a completed Resident Application on file with the International Student House of Washington, DC.
